

Media Advisory

As NATO prepares for its next Summit in Vilnius, Lithuania, on 11th and 12th July, the peace movement is organizing internationally to oppose NATO and put forward alternatives for peace. As part of these protests, Global Women for Peace United against NATO are hosting a programme of events in Brussels, home to the NATO HQ, from 6th to 9th July.

Our messaging is the Women's Declaration for Peace (full text available here). Key points: NO to NATO, No to militarised blocs, No to war: for a new security structure in Europe, a multipolar world based on peace, justice and global solidarity. More information at: www.womenagainstnato.org.
